THE Doctrine of Nativities, which I mentioned in my last years Almanack, is now made publick, for the encouragement and benefit of all generous Spirits. It is divided into three Parts.

The First treateth of the Beginnings or Principles of Astrologie, with a perspicuous Method for to judge of all manner of Nativities, illustrious or mean: Also the Doctrine of Revolutions much enlarged: And Examples of a Nativity and Revolution.

The second containeth the whole Art of Directions, and Tables of all sorts fitted for the same purpose. And to the end that the calculative part of Nativities may be the more compleat and perfect, there are Tables of the Planets Middle Motions inserted, whereby may be obtained their places for any time, either Past, Present, or To come, more accurate and true, then by any Ephemerides whatsoever; and the way how to apply them to all the principal parts or places of the world.

The Third discourseth of the Doctrine of Horary Questions, wherein is propounded and answered all necessary doubts contingent to the life of Man: which is of great use in the absence of a Nativity. In the Book throughout, the firm and sound Principles of Astrologie are made known and embraced, and the Chaff of Superstition and Error rejected; and every thing is rendered so facile and plain, that an ordinary capacity may attain to a sufficient degree of Knowledge therein, (yea, almost) without the assistance of a Tutor.

The Book is printed for, and sold by William Larnier, Daniel White, and Giles Calvert, at their Shops on Ludgate-hill, and in St. Paul's Church-yard.

If by the Law some persons do not gaine,
They'l curse the Lawyers; when within their brain
The Knave or Fool doth certainly remain.

Shall we the Broom blame, cause the Channel smells?
Or burn the Belfree for the noise o' ch' Bells?
This were Injustice, without Parallels.

If Rusticus, would from the Law live free,
Then Rusticus, a quiet man must be.

We are, with Kings and Queens, made of one blood,
'Tis Power makes us all, both great and good!

'Tis surely true, Kings are like gods below !
And can command the stiffest Knees to bow
Unto their Graces : but when sullen death
Conjures them to resigne their (frailer) breath,
“ Who can discern, but that the Lazar's story
“ Is writ as fair in th' Grave, as Nimrod's glory ?

Globes and Spheres, and the Mathematical Jewel, made and sold by Joseph Moxon, at his shop in Cornhil.

The young Sea-mans Guide, or the Astronomical Mariner; a Book of singular use for persons Mathematically inclined: Written by T. Gadbury, and shortly to be published.

January hath xxii day.

Here Mercury and Jupiter oppole,
From fixed Signs; and Venus backward goes:
Sol, Chronos squares; malicious the hate is,
For, it doth come, from Signum falsitatis!
Titan and Jove, presage prodigious odds.
'Twixt men on earth, that are accounted gods.

What, though the highest Planets backward run?
 Stout Mars is fixed; and Jove trines the Sun:
 And Blushing-Venus gets within the Line
 Of Chronus love; nay, coarts him by a Trine.
 If Levi's-Tribe could preach in Flinty-men,
 Blest Unity! we'd Reverence 'em then.

April hath xxx d ys.

Bavarians, and Gelibutians complain;
 Poor Ireland groans; and Italy wants Rain;
 The Russians mourn; the Medes, and Tartars weep;
 Nor can his Holiness, securely sleep:
 Th' eclipsed Moon, and other angry Stars,
 Presage to them, both Famine, Plague and Wars!

The Heavens smile, and Earth makes melody;
For Jove and Venus trine the first of May.
Hid-Park presents variety of Graces
To vulgar Eyes; perhaps some painted Faces.
Chronus opposes Phœbus eyes. The Looser Fry
Of wanton-wagtails, study Chastity.

To usher in this Month, Phaeton begins
To punish Venus, for her former sins;
Great Sol with Phaenon Trines; Hermes, and Jove,
And Warlike Mars, each other greet in love.

The two Malignants do oppose on high,
Portending Troubles in the earth, and skie.

October hath xxxi days.

October ! welcome ; for thou dost appear
To be the friendliest Month in all the year.
Four times the Planets mutually joyn,
And (full) three more they lovingly do trine :
" Besides two Sextiles ; which [assuredly]
" Brings life to Man, though Vegetables dye.

D. 6. now comes in coldly, and requires
Warm Cloaths and Dyet, Sack, and Nose-high Fires.
Speak we of Christmas to the zealous-Brother,
Oh! out! profane! (crys he) it is another
Neb or Bet! and superstitious Pyes
(That feed the wicked) of-fend-our gadly-eyes.

How

How to set a Figure of Heaven, &c.

HE that would learn to erect a Figure, must know, that there are seven Planets, or Erratique stars, which are continually moving in the 12 signes of the Zodiacke, in configuration one with another. Before I inform you, how, it is requisite, that I insert the characters of each Planet, and of the signes they move in, and of the Aspects they make, or behold each other with; which things, as they are easily learned, so ought they to be perfectly learned, by such, who hope to attaine the knowledge of any thing, in Astrology:

Of the seven Planets, their Natures, Characters and Names, with the two Neades.

- ♄. Saturn, is a Planet cold and dry, an Infortune.
- ♃. Jupiter, is Hot and Moist, a star Benevolent.
- ♂. Mars, is a star Hot and Dry, a Malevolent.
- ☉. The Sun is Hot and Dry, and of disposition friendly.
- ♀. Venus, is cold and Moist, a star fortunate.
- ☿. Mercury, is of nature cold and dry; he is variable.
- ☾. Luna, is cold and moist, his disposition indifferent.
- ♏. Dragons Head, is held Fortunate.
- ♏. Dragons Tayle, is found unfortunate.

Of the twelve Signes, their Characters, Natures, and Names.

- | | |
|--------------------|-----------------------|
| ♈. Aries. Fiery. | ♎. Libra. Airy. |
| ♉. Taurus. Earthy. | ♏. Scorpio. Watry. |
| ♊. Gemini. Ayrye. | ♐. Sagitary. Fiery. |
| ♋. Cancer. Watry. | ♑. Capricorn. Earthy. |
| ♌. Leo. Fiery. | ♒. Aquarius. Airy. |
| ♍. Virgoe. Earthy. | ♓. Pisces. Watry. |

Of the five Aspects, their Characters, Names and Natures.

☿. Conjunction, is good, with good, & à contra. It happens when Planets are in one signe, degree, and minute.

*. Sextile, is good, and is made, when Planets are 2. signes distant.

□. Quartile,

□. Quartile, is bad, and is made, when Planets are 3 signes distant.

△. Trine, is good, and is celebrated, when Planets, are 4 signes distant.

♁. Opposition, is malicious, and is the distance of 6. signes.

Having attained this, you may set a figure by the Table of Houses, beforegoing thus.

First, Draw with your Pen, or Pencil, a Dodechedron, or Figure of 12. equall Angles, or Parts, with a space in the middle, as is to be seen in the following Example.

Secondly, Consider the Day, Hour, and Minute, for which you would erect your Figure; which done, seek the Suns place at noon in the Ephemeris, the day you set the figure for; and enter the Table of Houses under the signe you finde the ☉ in, and in the tenth House, against the degree of the Sun, to the left hand, you will finde certaine houes and minutes, unto which if you add the houes and minutes of the time of the day (reckoning with Astronomers, your day from Noon, to Noon) you set the figure for, the product (except it exceed 24. houes) is to guide you in the same column, viz. under the Title time from Noon, untill you finde the Number; against which in the collaterall column, you have the Cusps of the six Orientall Houses, viz. 10. 11. 12. 1. 2. 3. the others are alwayes opposite, both in signes, degrees, and minutes. But, if the aggregate exceed 24. heures, then cast away 24^h. and the number remaining shall be your guide.

As for Example.

Suppose it be required to know, how the Heavens are posited at one of the clock after noon the fourteenth day of January this year, 1659. I first seek the place of the Sun in the Ephemerides, which against the fourteenth day at noon, I finde to be 5. degrees of ♍. therefore I turn to the Table of Houses under ☉ in ♍; and in the column of the tenth House against 5. degrees of ♍. (The place of the Sun.) to the left hand are 20 h. 29 m. under the Title time from noon; unto which if I add the time of the day, viz. one hour, the aggregate is 21 h. 29 m. Now, I seek for this Number in the column, entituled, Time from Noon, and the nearest to it, is 21 h. 30 m. against which Number, I finde the Cusps of the six Houses to the Orient, thus. (the opposite Houses have opposite signes, &c.)

A Collection of the Cusps of the Houses.

Orientall.	{	10. house. ♉ 20	{	Occidentall.	{	4. house. ♈ 20
		11. house. ♊ 19				5. house. ♎ 19
		12. house. ♋ 13				6. house. ♏ 13
		1. house. ♌ 25. 55				7. house. ♐ 25. 55
		2. house. ♍ 18				8. house. ♑ 18
		3. house. ♊ 3				9. house. ♒ 3

The Figure follows.

The next thing is, to enquire for the Planets places, on the said fourteenth of January; and at noon (without Reduction) their places are thus.

H. o. M. ♄. 9. ♎. ♀. 28. ♊. ☉. 5. ♋. ♀. 1. ♋. ♀. 23. ♋. ♀. 25. 38. ♋. ♋. 29. M. the rayle is opposite thereunto.

Now

A Generall Judgment on the year, 1659.

Now to place these in the figure, you must observe this rule, if your Planets place be less then the Cusp of your House, you must set him before the Cusp thereof; if more then your Cusp, then place him behind; as in the figure is shewn.

Note, that if you set a figure for 4. 5. 6. or 7. houres after noon, the Moon will require a reduction in his place, by reason of the swiftness of his motion; which, according to his mean motion, (being 12 degrees in a day,) is 30 m. an houre, and so by Addition in the afternoon, or subtraction in the forenoon, to, or from, his place at noon, you may gaine his place, truly enough, for all manner of ordinary matters or Questions; But for Nativities, you ought to learn Regiomontanus his Rationall way, for the erecting your figure thereby. Thus much, I thought convenient to signifie or make known unto the ingenious Tyroes; and if any thing herein shall seem difficult or hard unto him; Let him communicate it unto the Author, who will give him any convenient satisfaction.

Being confined unto a narrow scantling of paper, it cannot be expected that I should speak largely of this years actions. I shall therefore limit my selfe to the giving a brieve account, first of the Eclipses this year, and secondly of the Suns ingresse into the four Cardinall points.

1. Of Eclipses this year, 1659.

Our times will the Inhabitants of this Earthy Globe, be deprived of the light of the Sun and Moon (viz. twice of each) this year. The first of which will be a Lunar defect on Aprill the 26. about the setting of the Sun in our horison; Celebrated in 15 degrees of M. and will be visible to all Europe. It portends much drought, an infectious aire, a Rot of vulgar people; Many Seditions, Rumors and discontents, great Inundations, the destruction of Fishes, and Water-fowle, &c.

The

A Generall Judgment on the year, 1659.

The Second will be an Eclipse of the Sun on May the tenth, in the latter degrees of δ . but it happening three houres after our Midnight, is not to be seen of us in England, or in any of the adjacent Islands, it therefore concerns us nothing.

The third will be a Lunar Eclipse on October the 19th. in 7. of Taurus, about fifteen houres after noon, and will be conspicuous to all England, if the Aire be serene. It happens in the House of Death, and Ascendant of Ireland.

*Let those poor souls beware! the sickness rages
Beyond the credit of my short presages:
A Dearth of corn; their Cattle strangely Dye;
The Aire's infected; monstrous cruelty
Of all sorts doth afflict them! Sea & City
Of Herbs, and Fruits, and all Felicity.*

See Proclus of such an Eclipse, and Antonijs Guiffus. de Eclipsibus, page 140. I forbear all further discourse hereof, and come to the fourth, ---- which is that eminent one of the Sun, on November 4. about 3 afternoon, and will be an almost total Eclipse, and visible to all Europe.

This Age hath bin famous for the many and wonderfull Eclipses, and other Caelestiall Prodiges that have happened therein; as also for the many eminent terrene effects that have accompanied them; Some of which have bin so strange, that they have amazed the Generations of Men now living to consider, and will most assuredly amuse those yet to come, unto whom they shall be transmitted. This formidable Eclipse will be nothing behind hand in signification and effect. It is celebrated in the 1st decanate of the Scorpion, which according to Johannes Angelus, signifies War, Violence, Drunkenness, Fornication, Wrath and Pride. Si solis fuerit Eclipsis in ultimis 10. Grad. illi significat quod alienigeni Tyranni adventum, ignaviam, atque loco diu prioris Regis omnibus invisam. Guiff: de Eclipsib sol. 124. I shall pray that these words may not effectually speake English to this Brittish Isle; but rather that the God of Heaven, who alone can binde Caelestiall Influences, would protect protect and keep the Governours and Governed of these Nations; and let all those that are truly Religious, and Vertuous, say, Amen.

In the figure of this Eclipse we have Ψ Lord of the 9th. in the sixth, Going to a \square of σ Lord of the Ascendant, and suddenly after to a \square of \odot ; the naturall significator of Governours; which secretly whispers unto me some subtil Plot or Contrivance by the Blazing Meteors of Religion (whether opprobrious, or Fifth Monarchy-men, I will not take on me to determine,) against those who turn the helm of affaires in this Nation. Yea, I may aver, and that upon good ground, there is more cause, & just occasion to suspect these homebred Seminaries of mischief, then the publique Enemy, viz. the late Kings party. For ρ Lady of the 7th. is applying to a friendly \odot of \odot . at the end of the Eclipse, gently courting him in the seventh House, as if the tury of all former emulation were buried in the urne of forgetfulness, and they (after their being Lopt, Pruned, Sequetred, and Decimated) willing to live peaceably and at quiet, under that Government they have sometimes struggled against, and contended highly with. Fiat justitia, et ruat Caelum.

*If Enemies turn Friends, Let them enjoy
What Friends Apostate strive for to destroy.*

Yet further, according to the Canons of Astrologie, this Eclipse is likely to pour down its effects upon England's Metropolis, viz. London. For σ who according to Ptolomy is Lord thereof, as having most Dignities in the Ascendant, Midheaven, and the place Eclipsed, is Retrograde in the third in II. the Ascendant of that great City! And what he signifies by being Lord of an Eclipse, let Origanus, &c. tell us. ---- Inter homines bella ciuitatis, seditiones intestinas, urbium excidia, tumultus populi, iras principum, et ab his inopinatas mortes efficit. In Corporibus morbos biliosos, febres tertianas, sanguinis eruptiones, morbos acutos, violentos interitus, praecipue iuvenum producit. In vita violentiam, injurias, incendia, homicidia, rapinas, latrocinia affert. In aere aestus, æstus, ventos calidos, pestiferos, tabificos, fuminum jaculationes, turbines, et siccitatem excitat. In mari subita naufragia, propter inordinatos flatus, fulmina et alia hujusmodi perreundit. In fluminibus aquas exserbet, fontes desecat, latrunculos corrumpit. In terra frumenta et res terre nascentes ad usum necessarias pessundat, vel dum nascuntur, pernicioso æstu vastat, vel etiam dum in vehuntur, conflagrationibus perdit. Origan. Tom. 1. fol. 459. Ptol. Quadr. 1. 2. Cap. 8.

A Generall Judgment on the year, 1659.

These are the naturall significations of ♄, as Lord of an Eclipse; An indifferent Schollar may English the words. But my opinion is, although many Epidemicall diseases may raigne this year, as in Aprill and May the last; yet the sickness will hardly seaze on London, untill he enter the fiery and regall sign ♄, which is opposite to her Ascendant, viz. II (as you heard before) which will be in the year 1662 and he will continue in that signe almost 3. years, all which time London much expect to be a patient.

Those Persons whose Nativities concur herewith, will be considerably concerned in the effects portended; according to the meaning of Pto'my, in these words; Defectus Luminarium in cardinibus genituræ annuarum, & conversionum, noxius est. An Eclipse of either Light falling in the Angles of a Nativity, or Annuall Revolution, is very hurtfull to the Native, happy would it therefore be for all persons to know, and be acquainted with their own Genitures, that they thereby foreseeing an evill, may the better provide against it.

Many more things might be observed from the Scheame of this prodigious defect, but the narrowness of my roome is such, that I am prevented of giving an account thereof. I conclude, only take notice that at the middle and end of this Eclipse, there are no lesse then five Planets in Scorpio, and all in the seventh House, which signifies Wars, S rifes, and Controversies; And Cauda Draconis is in the Ascendant also.

*Take heed poor Brittain! of intestine Farres,
So maist thou scape another ten years warres.*

2. Of

2. Of the Suns entrance into the four Cardinall points this year, 1659.

CUSTOME hath made it (almost) Naturall, for the year to begin at the vernall Equinox, or Spring season; as if it were a thing prodigious in Nature for the conception to Antecede the Birth. But 'tis most congruous to Reason, for the year to begin in December at the Winter solstice, when the ☉ enters the tropique ♄, because at that moment of time, he hath finished his greatest Southern inclination, and begins to come towards us (who live on this side of the Equator) againe; thence by his approach instilling life by degrees into all vegitables, which though it be most apparent in March, at what time he enters ♋. yet it hath a being and measure while he is in ♄. And although ♋ be the birth of Vegitables, yet ♄ is the true conception of them; As my worthy Friend, Mr. Joshua Childrey hath briefly, yet learnedly, and satisfactorily argued, in his Indago Astrologica. Sect. 26.

And Origanus witnesseth that most of the Eastern Countreyes, following the latter Romans, began their year at the Calends of January, which then was not much distant from the Winter solstice, viz. ♄, which solstice at the birth of Christ, Anno Mundi. 3967. was on December 25. but is now about the 11th. of December; so that the Winter solstice falleth sooner (now) by 14 dayes, then it did, at that time. With Origanus agreeth that laborious and industrious Mathematician, Mr. Blundevile, in this thing also. But least people should deem my writings as strange & uncouth, as they already doe the truth, I shall forbear all further discourse of this Nature here; and according to custome will begin the year at the Spring; which the Poet prettily Analyzeth, thus.-----

*The winter being gone, the Earth hath lost
Her snow-white Robes; And now no more the frost
Candyes the Grass; or casts any icie cream
Upon the silver Lake, or christall stream:
But the warm Sun thaws the benumbed Earth,
And makes it tender; gives a sacred birth*

To

A Generall Judgment on the year, 1659.

To the dead Swallow; wakes in hollow tree
The Drowsie Cuckow, and the humble Bee.

Now do a quire of chirping Minstrels Bring
In triumph to the world, the youthfull Spring!

And Mantuan in his second Eclogue, brings in Faustus, curiously describing it thus. —————

*Quandoquidem nunc alma Venus movet omnia caelum.
Luce tepet nitida, tellus viret, arua volucres cantibus exhilarant vernis, nunc omnia fectant.*

(i.e.) Now Venus fair excites all things to Mirth
Heaven's clad with Azure; And the rusty Earth
Look fresh and green, The Birds with vernal song
Make th' woods to ring, and all are big with yong.

This pleasant time beginneth with us this year on March 10 d. 1 h. 2 m. P.M. at which time 17 d. of the Cælestiall Ram Culminates, and ballanceth Heaven; and 8 d. of the Lyon is Horoscopically. ♈ is ♀ in the 12th. in Δ to ☉ Lord of the Ascendant in the 9th. which friendly position, perhaps may signifie some probability of a (hoped for) peace between us and the Spaniard. Both significators apply, the one by retrogradation, the other by direction, as less ponderous. But I pretermitt all further discourse hereof, presuming the opportunity will be improv'd by those prudent statesmen, who are peculiarly concern'd in the business; and this as well for their own, as Countrys good.

The ☿ is in the tenth house, in the rugged signe ♄, which presages that there is yet remaining in a discontented sort of Persons, the dregs of malice and fury; And it is an hundred to one, but they will endeavour to pour out the viols of their wrath, upon the Reputations and good Names of Princes and Governours, either in scandalous Libels, or malicious speeches, &c. Much tending to the dishonour, and disparagement of the endeavours and desires of those, who have made it their business to settle this unsteady, and (of late) bleeding Nation, in tranquility, peace, and quietness.

We have also the Moon in the eighth house, going to ☿ of ♀ in the Phlegmaticque signe ♋. (who is Lord of the eleventh) eleventh) and there every way weake; Inrimateing unto us, a catastrophe of our hopes; by reason of the unworthy stratagems, subtil Ploys, and contrivances of Clerks, Solicitors, Secretaries, or Attornies; and the Retrogradation of ♄ in the 4th. in □ to ♈. in the 12th. and almost in □ to ☿ in the 7th. aggravates and increaseth the mischief the more, and maketh the wound the further from a cure.

Of the Summer season.

On the 11th. day of June, near 5. houres P.M. the Æstivall Quarter commences this year. At which time both the Luminaries are in the 8th. house, and ♄ and ☿ are in ♈. from the 5th and 11th. ☿ casts a □. to both, and ♀. cum ☿ in the sixth house in □. to ♈. in the ninth. I will sum up all these significations together with the rest, at last.

Of Autumne.

Æquinoctium Autumnale, or Autumnall Quarter Inchoates alwayes, when the illustrious Lamp of Heaven assumes the Cælestiall Ballance, and on this year it happens on September the 13. about six in the morning, at which time ☿ and ☿ are in M.C. ♀ is in □. of ☿. and ☿. in □. of ♀. who is both Retrograde and Combust. The figure is the same (almost) with that for the Spring season.

Of winter.

Solstitium Hyemale, or the Winter season initiates when ☉ enters ♋. which will this year happen on December 11th. about 7 a clock at night. ☿ at that time is in □. to ♀. and ♄. who is Dominus Septimæ, is in M. and in □. to the Ascendant. The ☿ is in the 10 h. (and so it was both in the Spring, and Autumnall Quarters) And ☿ is retrograde in the eleventh house in Quartile of Jupiter.

☿ Of all which configurations, see Origanus, Haly, Guido, &c. for I want room to insert their opinions at large, But in brief, they portend many Quarrels, Contentions, and strifes among the Plebeians, or vulgar people; And scandals, disgraces, prodigious Insultations, and reproaches against persons of the Superior degree. Tedious and heavy Law-suites among men of all sorts, and an itching desire to ruine each other ; much Bribery, Basenesse, and Extortion raiging every where : A Corruption of Judges, and the Administrators of Justice, &c. Mercurians make it their business to trot and trudge about to generate mischiefs ;

The spirits of men are laden with prejudice, the better to ballance them in their flight upon the wings of madnesse.
Nor will the abused passe by injuries easily. Lis litem generat. One misfortune is no sooner over, but another is set on foot. All sorts of persons will hug and cherish milchief, as if it were legitimate. So that the Poets lash, may justly reach our times. -----

And that which is as bad, as all this is, These evils are not like to end with the year. The Conjunction of h. 4.
in 1663. in ♄. will hardly compase us, so much as that of the same Planets in 1643. did perplex us.
